Advisory

February 7, 2022
OSDS-CID-AD- 16

to Division Memorandum No. 41, s. 2022

(Virtual Literacy Instruction Training in English and Staff Orientation Workshop)

1. In connection with the upcoming activity on the Virtual Literacy Instruction Training in English on February 8-10, 2022 pursuant to Division Memorandum No. 41, 2022, please be informed that instead of the Microsoft Teams the training – workshop shall use the Google Meet platform, link will be sent to the official Messenger group chat of the Public Schools District Supervisors for English subject/concerns.
2. Likewise, to facilitate attendance checking, submission of outputs and internet issue, it is suggested that participants should gather in a place where there is a fast internet connectivity, strictly following health protocols and social distancing.
3. The number of participants per district and secondary school should be followed to limit the number of gatherings, thus if there are some changes, a district memorandum shall be issued following specific reasons for justification.
4. A district action plan shall be submitted after the 3 day-activity in preparation for the school's Learning Action Cell.
5. For information and compliance.
