Hello,

I am happy to inform you that you have been accepted to participate in the forthcoming conference. I received the forwarded email from the secretary, and I believe a copy was sent to you too. There, you will find more information about the conference and registration guidelines. The registration form is in the attached file. Please read through the registration form carefully before filling in the required information.

Completed forms with supporting documents should be submitted to the secretary via email (secretary@assopbo.org or info.assopbo@gmail.com). In the registration form, there is a section where you are to fill in how you learned about the program and who invited you. Be sure to indicate my name there to guarantee your participation is confirmed. I have attached a copy of my ID and some other photos for proper identification.

You are welcome to participate as a group if your colleagues are interested in attending the event. No group should have more than five members. Every group member is expected to complete a separate form, and these should be submitted together as a group for proper documentation.

The documents needed to confirm your participation are as follows:

1. Completed Delegate Registration Form
2. A scanned copy of the Data Page of an international passport
3. Hotel Booking confirmation or proof of accommodation in the US
4. Colored Passport Photo

You are to reserve a hotel room for the duration of the conference, as delegates are responsible for hotel bookings and living expenses during the program. The conference will be held at the Florida State Conference Center: 555 W Pensacola St Tallahassee, FL 32306-1640. You can select any hotel around the conference venue to make your room reservations. Your room reservations should be for the duration of the program and can be extended depending on your planned itinerary. Follow the booking link to book your hotel reservation on booking.com. You can also use other booking websites for your hotel reservation.

Finally, ensure you submit your complete registration documents as soon as possible to secure your spot at the conference. Also, forward your registration documents to me for my records, as it will help me facilitate the processing of your entitled travel documents. I look forward to meeting you at the conference venue.

Best regards.

Mrs. Loretta Wilson,
Member of the Conference Organizing Committee

Registration:

Registration for CSCMS 2024 is free, and the organizing committee, in collaboration with the conference sponsors, will cover all registered delegates' travel expenses (round-trip air tickets). Visa assistance will also be rendered to delegates who need a visa to enter the United States for the conference.

Delegates who require a visa will be responsible for their visa fee, which they are to pay at the US Embassy in their country of residence at the point of receiving their visa. They will also be responsible for their travel insurance, which will be required once their visa letter is approved by the United States Immigration Department.

To participate in the conference, one must be registered. Delegates can participate individually or in groups. Groups can be formed in a range of two (2) to five (5) members.

The registration form is attached to this email. You are to download and complete the form accurately. Completed forms should be submitted to the secretary via email along with other required documents, as listed below.

- A scanned copy of the data page of the International Passport,
- Recent colored passport photo, and
- Hotel booking reservations.

These documents should be submitted as soon as possible to confirm your participation.

Participation Terms & Conditions:

The following terms and conditions set out the legal rules applicable to every delegate. Participants shall be bound by these terms and conditions.

You are advised to read and understand these terms carefully before commencing your registration. The organizing committee will not accept any condition(s) that is not in line with these terms.

- To be eligible to participate in the business conference, attendees must be at least 18 years old (attendees may be asked to present an official identity card showing their age during accreditation).
- The conference organizing committee reserves the right to refuse any registration if the maximum number of delegates expected is exceeded.
- Registered delegates are responsible for the cost of their hotel accommodations and living expenses in Tallahassee, Florida.

- Attendees are expected to honor their visas by returning home to their respective countries after the conference.
- All delegates' details will be kept on our records for some period of time. Your information will not be shared with anyone, and we will not contact you about anything other than the event you attend unless you have indicated otherwise.
 - Registration will not be complete until all the requirements for participation are fulfilled by the applicant.
 - It is imperative for all delegates to observe relevant security procedures during the period of the event. Be sure to have your delegate conference badge on at all times for easy identification.

Accommodation:

Participants will be responsible for securing their accommodation for the duration of the conference. We implore delegates to reserve their rooms at any hotel of their choice within Tallahassee, Florida, where the conference will be held. The venue of the conference is the Florida State Conference Center: 555 W Pensacola St, Tallahassee, FL 32306-1640. Your reservation should be from Tuesday, June 4th (arrival date) to Sunday, June 9th, 2024 (departure date). Though delegates can decide to stay more days in the US after the conference, they would be expected to depart the US before the expiration of their visas.

Please follow the link, www.booking.com, to book your hotel online. The link has been configured to display a list of hotels around the venue of the conference. You can select any hotel of your choice from the list.

The hotel reservation receipt should be submitted along with other requested documents for registration.

Visa Processing:

Foreign participants must be in possession of a valid international passport to apply for a U.S. visa. On completion of the conference registration process, the participant's registration file/visa request will be forwarded to the U.S. Department of State's Bureau for visa authorization. Upon approval, a copy of the approved visa letter will be sent to the delegate and to the Consulate Section of the U.S. Embassy in your country of residence, where you will collect your visa.

An appointment date will be communicated to you by the Attorney General on when to visit the U.S. Embassy for visa collection after the approval of your visa authorization letter here in the United States. You are to inform us if you already have a U.S. visa when submitting your registration documents.

Flight Ticket:

Free round-trip air tickets will be provided by the organization and its benevolent sponsors in the United States and abroad. The round-trip air tickets will cover delegates' air travel from their countries of residence to Tallahassee, Florida, U.S.A., and back to their country after the conference.

Invitation Letter:

All registered delegates whose participation has been confirmed will be sent an official letter of invitation. For a delegate's participation to be confirmed, he or she must have submitted all the required documents for registration.

Presentation:

Interested participants who wish to present a paper are advised to write a summary of their presentation. This should be in relation to the above-listed topics. Indicate your intention to make a presentation during registration.

Language:

The official language of the conference is English; however, there will be provision for digital wireless translation into several major languages across the globe.

Note: Early submission of registration documents is advised, as we have almost attained the maximum number of delegates needed to participate in the program.

Sincerely,

Harold Brown.

Good day,

I am glad you are interested in the forthcoming International business conference. Our organization is the Association of Private Business Owners. We are a membership-based, public, not-for-profit association of American business leaders and organizations engaged in or supporting international trade. Our mission is to facilitate international trade in the US and other countries, to promote and market the US as a world-class center for global commerce, and to support other organizations that share these goals.

This mission is accomplished through the retention, expansion, and attraction of international commerce, the education of association members, and the development of Strategic Alliances with entities that value regional cooperation in the pursuit of this mission.

In this regard, we are currently inviting business professionals from various walks of life to attend the 2024 Conference on Supply Chain Management and Sustainability (CSCMS), which will be held in Tallahassee, Florida, USA, from June 5-8, 2024. This will be an avenue to meet investors here in the United States. You can read more about the conference on the website - CSCMS 2024

Registration is free. Delegates are welcome to participate individually or in groups. The maximum number of people who can participate as a group is five (5). Complementary round-trip flight tickets will be provided to delegates, courtesy of the conference organizers and sponsors. Additionally, visa assistance will be rendered to foreign delegates who require a visa to come to the United States for the program. However, delegates will be responsible for their hotel booking for the duration of the program and their travel insurance.

I have submitted your information to the secretary, and I will ensure you are accepted to participate in the program and receive more details about the summit, including information on registration and more.

I look forward to meeting you at the conference venue.

Regards,

Mrs. Loretta Wilson,
Member of the Conference Organizing Committee
