Reminders for Group Events (Collaborative Desktop Publishing and Online Publishing)

1. Laptops, flashdrives, and memory cards to be used during the group contests must be checked by the facilitators on May 25 (Thursday) 8:00 AM-5:00 PM at Calatagan High School. This is to ensure that there are no documents, images, graphics, and media files saved in the devices prior to contest schedule.
2. Laptops, flashdrives, and memory cards that did not undergo inspection and checking prior to contest schedule won't be allowed inside the contest room.
3. In case the laptops to be used in the contest are borrowed from the school or an individual, coaches must ensure that original files in their contestant's laptop are already backed up in a separate storage. Facilitator's task should only be checking of these devices and NOT emptying of files.
4. Installation of software and programs is NOT part of facilitator's task. Coaches and advisers must ensure that necessary programs or software are already installed in the laptops prior to contest schedule (refer to DO No. 176 s. 2023).
5. For Collaborative Desktop Publishing, the software to be used is Adobe InDesign CS6 version or any high.
6. For Online Publishing, the platform to be used is Google Suites platform. Online Pub teams are NOT allowed to use any flashdrive.
7. Laptops, flashdrives, and memory cards that already underwent inspection will be put inside a designated room at Calatagan HS. These devices will be released to contestants once the group event has officially started.
8. Teams are advised to provide their own extension wire to be used during the contest.
