Sincerely,

To confirm your attendance, please contact us at 09171142842 or rs@cda.gov.ph. Should you have any questions or need further information, do not hesitate to reach out to us.

We look forward to your positive response and active participation in this important initiative. Together, we can work towards a more compliant, robust, and prosperous cooperative sector in Camarines Sur.

We strongly encourage all non-compliant cooperatives to attend and actively participate in this valuable opportunity. Your participation will not only help you meet compliance requirements but also strengthen your cooperative's foundation for sustainable growth.

1. Mandatory Training: Essential training sessions on cooperative governance, management, and regulatory compliance to equip you with the knowledge and tools needed for successful operations.
2. Bookkeeping and Accounting Services: Professional assistance in bookkeeping and accounting to ensure your financial records are accurate, up-to-date, and compliant with regulatory standards.

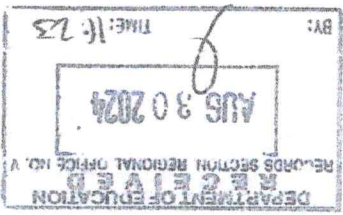

This event aims to provide comprehensive support and guidance to help you achieve compliance and improve your cooperative's operational efficiency. We are pleased to offer the following FREE services during the event:

We hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. The Cooperative Development Authority (CDA) is committed to supporting the growth and compliance of micro and small cooperatives in our region. As part of this commitment, we are organizing a special compliance caravan and handholding activity on September 26-27, 2024, at Albay Astrodome, Old District, Legazpi City, Albay, exclusively for cooperatives that have been non-compliant for the years 2021, 2022, and 2023.
