Joane Lorica-Damaso:

Teacher, Store owner, Masseuse,
Mother and Totally Blind

“ATRIEV showed me how life is meaningful despite the challenges we have. After several trainings I have attended I could say that I am now ready to face the world with full of confidence, competence and skills.”

— *Joane Lorica-Damaso,
Blind from Albay*

The computer skills she learned from ATRIEV in 2007, equipped her with the skills to complete her college course in B.S. Education. However, rather than pursuing her teaching career, she chose to work as a masseuse because it provides a more consistent income. During that time, her massage earnings were sufficient to support not only her family, but also her master's degree.

But this was all prior to the pandemic.

The once stable career was lost at an instant. Blind masseurs were the most affected by the pandemic due to physical restrictions.

Fortunately, even in the midst of the pandemic, ATRIEV was still able to offer its training programs online. Joane, and hundreds of blind masseurs, learned to use their smartphones with assistive technology to start their own business and sell their products and services online. ATRIEV, through its partners, also provided financial capital assistance to help them jump start their business. Through ATRIEV's Digital Business Basics training, persons with disabilities found ways to earn and helped them tide over the pandemic.

Joane's story is just one of many ATRIEV beneficiaries' success stories. ATRIEV is an I.T. Center for the Blind that teaches both persons with disabilities and those who work for or with people with disabilities how to use technology to advance their education, careers, and businesses. It is the first NGO focused on assistive technology, and its training programs have benefited hundreds of thousands of people in the Philippines, both with and without disabilities.

Help us help more visually-impaired people reach their dreams by sharing your time, talent and treasure with us. We would like to hear from you. You can reach us at:

Using the same computer that you use, but with a software that translates computer visuals to speech, ATRIEV has provided I.T. training to hundreds of persons with visual impairment and with other disabilities to help them adapt in schools and find jobs.
